Cancer Coffee Morning

Thank you so much for your support with Class 5's Cancer Coffee Morning last week. Altogether we raised £247.56 for our three cancer charities, Macmillan, CLIC Sargent and Jill's Bath. Class 5 did a brilliant job leading the day and each class enjoyed their own class coffee morning with games.

Big Draw Festival 2021 at The Gymnasium Gallery

On Saturday 9 October why not join artist Sinéad Kempley, in this hands-on family workshop!

Inspired by Gemma Burditt's Future Landscapes exhibition – through drawing and collage, using recycled and natural materials, make your own zine (a little booklet) to take home. All materials will be provided. You can bring along any natural materials that you have found. All ages welcome. Children must be accompanied by an adult. Sessions are 45 minutes long and booking is essential. £2 per table (max 5 people per table). More information and booking at: www.maltingsberwick.co.uk

SAM Music Service

Does your child wish to learn an instrument or sing? We have joined up with SAM Music who provide online weekly 30 minute 1:1 lessons at home - Mon-Fri after school and Saturday 9am-5pm. The service enables you to playback videos of the lessons, to help with practice. Progress through Grade exams and gives performance opportunities in-school. Learn to play Guitar, Drums, Piano (Keyboard) or Vocals. Enquire by visiting www.sammusicservice.com or calling 0800 756 9411 to book a free, no-commitment taster lesson!

Blessing of Animals Service

Join the celebration of St Francis of Assisi – Patron Saint of animals. Bring along your pets and animals to be blessed as part of a celebration service for St Francis of Assisi and all creatures. Dog, Cat, Goat, lizard whatever! All Welcome! The service is planned to be outside, if weather is poor, it will move inside! 5pm Saturday 9th October 2021 Holy Trinity Church.
