Shadow Minister for Policing and the Fire-Service

Last week the Shadow Minister, Sarah Jones and Northumbria Police Crime Commissioner, Kim McGuinness came to school to see Class 5 and the work our Mini-Police are doing in the community. The visit was part of a wider visit to the northern area command. The children had lots of questions and they went on a deployment, completing a litter pick and using a speed gun to check drivers speeds on North Road.

Bishop of Berwick Visit

It was a pleasure to welcome the Bishop of Berwick, Mark Wroe to school alongside the Diocesan Director of Education, Canon Rickeard. Our visitors had a tour around school and then faced a very tricky question and answer session with Class 3. The class wanted to find out all about the Bishop's job (Joey) and how easy or difficult it was (Gracie). They asked, how long he had been the Bishop of Berwick (Tymon) and did he get paid (Archie). They also wanted to know how many friends he had (Lara), where he was born (Benjamin) and all about his pets (Audrina).
