Writing Week

This week has been our annual writing week. It started with a letter from the Palace asking us to help by creating some amazing work to be shared with other schools. The children were up to the challenge and have produced fact-files, recipes to be a great King, poetry on the crown jewels, plans for being a part of History and lots of art work. We hope that they have spoken to you at home about the week and they will all certainly have a much greater understanding of the coronation when it happens next weekend. They have also been challenged to be great writers!

Coronation Celebrations

On Friday 5 May our amazing PTA are planning an afternoon garden party for the school. Children should come to school wearing a touch of red, white and blue and bring a £1 donation towards the picnic which will be provided. Children may also bring a picnic blanket if they wish for use during the afternoon. If the weather is with us we plan to sing the Coronation Song at 3pm, so please come along to the school yard to listen to our performance.
